

COCKTAILS & SHOTS

But first a Cocktail

The French Martini

A sumptuous pink colour issued from the famous Chambord vodka; it gives a nod to its heritage - it's Louis XIV who first sampled the liqueur.

Dry Martini | Bikini Martini | Espresso Martini

Margarita

Part of the daisy family of cocktails, popular in the early 20th century, containing tequila, citrus juice, an orange liqueur and sugar syrup

Negroni

Story goes that the drink was invented in Florence in 1919 when Count Negroni asked for a slug of gin in his Americano in place of the soda. So, the aromatic and dangerously alcoholic Negroni was born

Kir Royale

Crème de cassis with French Champagne, created by a Catholic priest in France, his cocktail creations were part of his resistance to the Nazis. A true hero who helped rescue many prisoners of war

Manhattan

The most famous cocktail in the world shortly after it was invented in New York City's Manhattan Club, sometime around 1880 (as the story goes) Two parts whiskey, one-part sweet vermouth and bitters. Stirred, never shaken

Old Fashioned

The sophisticated cocktail, with a blend of bourbon, bitters and sugar made its first appearance in 1806 primarily consumed first thing in the morning as a remedy for headaches and nausea

Cosmopolitan

A favourite for celebrities from Miami to New York, this famous cocktail is made with vodka, triple sec, cranberry juice, freshly squeezed lime, gossip and laughter

Aperol Spritz

This popular aperitif is as visually pleasing as it is tasty: a three-two-one ratio of Prosecco, Aperol and Soda

Or perhaps surprise yourself with one of our craft Grecian cocktails

Zorba the Greek

Sip a mixture of whiskey and Amaretto and channel your inner Zorba, but remember his 6 words. “This drink is not for amateurs”

Black Rose

This koukla is sweet and seductive. While it may look as feminine as a flower with its blackberry ingredients, don't be fooled; its dose of French Vermouth and Crème de cassis certainly packs a punch

Aphrodite

The rum component, with an emphasis on oak overtones makes this mythological cocktail full of a complex array of flavours that shall evoke the goddess of love and beauty

The Spartan

Strong and Magnificent, Grand Marnier and Vodka based with Coca-Cola, this secret combination shall create magic for you...

One Night in Paros

Sweet and bright in colour and flavour with tequila, raspberry ouzo, grenadine and orange juice, this cocktail will make you dance all night

Santorini Sunset

Meet me in Santorini, a favourite for lovers. This Grecian cocktail is made with ouzo and blue curacao and will have you dreaming

.....
